FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

#1 Top Advisor for Northern California Awarded to Agi Smith

Luxury real estate brokerage honors Napa Valley agent

Napa, CA (April 5, 2022) – Engel & Völkers announced Agi Smith’s induction into the Chairman’s Circle and her ranking as the top agent for all of Engel & Völkers in Northern California while at the EVX Unlocked event in Las Vegas, Nevada in March.

Agi was the #1 highest producing Real Estate Advisor at Engel & Völkers in all of Northern California in 2021 based on sales volume, and it was her third year as #1 in Wine Country.

“Selling real estate is a passion I am deeply committed to,” says Agi. “ My clients from all walks of life know I value their privacy, and they know I always negotiate the best possible outcome for their families. I am genuinely grateful for the people I meet through my work and the friendships that have blossomed. I look forward to the many new adventures this year will bring.”

In addition to her contribution to the Engel & Völkers culture of the highest level of client service, Agi brings deep knowledge of the luxury market and local landscape with exceptional expertise. She has also previously earned Private Office Advisor status, with private access to some of the world’s most prestigious off-market properties.

Napa shop manager, Stefan Jezycki, asserts, “Agi Smith brings passion and poise into her business: with such a deep knowledge and commitment to her clients, it is only poetic that Agi reach this level of achievement. We are all so honored and blessed to have Agi in our lives and part of our Napa Valley Engel & Völkers Team. Congratulations Agi!”

Paul Benson, Gestalt Group CEO, adds, “Agi has been a brand ambassador for Engel & Völkers since her very first day with us. I could not be more proud of watching how she has created relationships all over the globe with our advisors. I am certainly not surprised by her incredible success and frankly, this is just the beginning! ”
